

STAFF INVOLVEMENT IN PLANNING AND PROCEDURES

The Board encourages employees to provide input regarding district policies and procedures. From time-to-time this input may include participation on committees and programs in such areas as:

- District policies;
- Building protocol and procedure development;
- Development of programs, goals, and objectives;
- Budget planning; and
- Facilities planning.

Each principal, director and administrator shall maintain channels for all staff to provide input on building protocol and procedures. Staff members are also encouraged to participate in the development of school policies through the School Policies Advisory Council pursuant to Board Policy BGAA.

Certified staff shall be encouraged to provide input on curriculum development, with particular arrangements made for determining curricular goals and objectives, and the development of specific curriculum for the various instructional programs in the District.

In the development of procedures for the operation of the school district, the Superintendent should generally include principals, directors and administrators who will be affected by such procedures.

The Superintendent shall allow employees to communicate ideas and opinions regarding the operation of the schools in the District. The Superintendent shall inform the Board of such input when presenting recommendations for Board action.
