DISCLAIMER

This comprehensive district plan was developed by the Wyoming Department of Education (WDE) in cooperation with AdvancED Wyoming to align state and federal plan requirements to a common framework. This document meets the requirements of both the WDE and AdvancED for district continuous improvement.

COMPREHENSIVE PLAN DIRECTIONS

Writing Plans

There are three domains: Teaching and Learning, Leadership Capacity and Resource Utilization. For each domain:

1. ASSESS NEEDS

- Read related research, evaluate student performance and stakeholder survey data, and self-evaluate using the AdvancED rubrics to rate the level of implementation for each indicator as needs improvement, acceptable, or effective practice, or 1, 2, 3 or 4.
- Indicators rated as Level 4 on the AdvancED rubric are effective practices. Indicators rated as 3 are acceptable. Indicators rated as 1 or 2 are needs improvement.

2. STATUTORY ASSURANCES

- Review the statutes aligned to the indicators to ensure the school is meeting the requirements of Wyoming statute and applicable Federal statutes. Statutory authority is included in a separate document.

3. SUMMARY OF PRACTICES

- For indicators marked as Effective Practice, Title 1 Plan and School Improvement Grant (SIG) requirements, schools will write a summary of the school's approach to implementation of the applicable requirements. All schools may have effective practices and all schools may write summaries for any or all indicators, even those not marked as an Effective Practice.

4. IMPROVEMENT PLANS

- Based on the needs identified, write an improvement plan for each domain. All schools are required to complete improvement plans every five years for accreditation. All schools write improvement plans annually if required by state and/or federal statute. At least one of the improvement goals should reflect the intent to improve WAEA indicator scores.
- Plans for small schools (those that don't receive a school performance rating) should address all WAEA indicators.

Plan Submission

- Submit plans to the district superintendent for signature. Plans that require board approval will also be signed by the district board chairman.
- Post the signed plan on the district web site in .pdf format or as a view-only shared file.
- Send a link to Accreditation Consultant/Dianne Frazer at the Wyoming Department of Education (WDE) by December 7. (Dianne.Frazer@wyo.gov)
- Upload plan through the AdvancED Assurances in ASSIST every five years for accreditation.

WDE Representative Assistance

- The plan template is currently available from WDE in Google Docs and as an Adobe Acrobat Form. Plans can be converted to Microsoft Word. Plan templates can be developed in other collaborative formats if necessary. WDE representatives will work collaboratively with schools using Google Docs (or another collaborative format) to develop school plans as required by W.S.21-2-204(f).

Curriculum, instruction, and assessment are monitored and adjusted systematically in response to data from multiple assessments of student learning and an examination of professional practice. (3.2 Rubric)	Effective Practice

Summary of Practices:

Sheridan County School District #2 routinely has central office staff visit classrooms on a daily basis to monitor and evaluate the quality of instruction. The superintendent, Craig Dougherty, actively monitors classroom performance, especially new faculty to the district, and during their initial contract period of three years. In addition, Assistant Superintendents Scott Stults and Mitch Craft visit school sites every week.

SCSD#2 strives for excellence through our Professional Learning Communities (PLC) with a focus on student learning. To further monitor curriculum and instruction, the central office is receiving regular feedback from principals sharing their results from common formative assessments from weekly Professional Learning Community (PLC) meetings. In fact, teachers are holding each other accountable in their PLC teams by analyzing data and discussing scores. For example, an 8th grade teacher was comparing his results to his colleagues in a PLC meeting, and realized he needed instructional improvements on conventions.

Finally, the entire Sheridan County School District #2 is focused on accountability. The motto of the district exemplifies this: “Excellence and Accountability.”

Effective Practice

Summary of Practices:

To incorporate continuous improvement and a culture of professionalism, our team meets weekly to collaborate with colleagues on professional development activities. Similar to other schools, we implement Professional Learning Communities to promote consistent and effective teaching practice with peer review, all with an eye toward improving student learning.

Data analysis and continuous instructional decisions are one of the most important aspects of ensuring students’ success at the Wright Place. As a staff, we have committed to the Professional Learning Communities (PLC) philosophy. The beginning of year is launched with a goal mindset where PLC groups review our school’s mission and set a SMART goal based on data analysis. Through our weekly PLC meetings, we work systematically through the four big questions of a PLC. We evaluate current student data, identify essential outcomes, look for trends, create common formative assessments, and plan appropriate instruction for each child. Students are then placed into appropriate needs based intervention and advisory groups (TRIBES) in literacy and math where teachers use data to guide their instruction. Student success on standardized assessments is crucial to our academic growth as a school.

Since we are a small school, our staff is also committed to collaborating and meeting with the middle school that we share a facility with, and as a whole group throughout the week. In an effort to further develop curriculum, we have divided the week into three PLC meetings. Monday we focus our efforts around excellent teaching, vision, mission, belief, and core values. Friday morning teams analyze assessment data to determine areas of further instructional need and teacher professional development. Friday afternoon is set aside for collaboration regarding curriculum. Therefore promoting a shared sense of leadership as we work to meet the ever-increasing rigor of the new state standards as well as allow for common goals to be determined and reached through collaboration and systemic review of student data.

Instructional Process (3.6)

Teachers implement the school's instructional process in support of student learning. (3.6 Rubric)

Acceptable

Summary of Practices:

Wright Place Middle School is SCSD#2's middle school level alternative educational program, and exists to provide educational opportunities for students who have not met success in the traditional school setting. Currently we have 19 students attending our school. There are many reasons why a student may not meet success in the traditional setting, and as such we seek to meet the individual needs of every student and incorporate a culture that makes intellectual learning and character development of equal importance.

In order to address the learning needs of all students we use a systematic evaluation process that is consistent district wide. Students at Wright Place master the same academic standards as their peers at Sheridan Junior High School; however, our non-traditional focus allows students to work toward mastery using a variety of learning strategies focused on individual learning styles, varied assessments and a flexible pace. Through a supportive, individually--focused academic programs and strong parental involvement, our students achieve excellent academic success.

Among our student-focused initiatives is "Tribes", an intervention and advisory program that runs multi-age/grade homeroom, and promotes positive interpersonal relationships between teachers/students and students/students. We also provide intensive remediation on Fridays to promote positive academic outcomes. Our Discovery Program works to generate positive behavior in all students, and we implement the "Circle" concept to celebrate our student and staff successes.

Ultimately, our team at the Wright Place is here to educate each individual based on needs and abilities, and by doing so to help our students meet high standards and academic excellence.

Summary of Practices:

At Wright Place Middle School, we realize the importance of engaging our families and the community, as we become a school that all stakeholders can be proud of. We strive to incorporate positive parent and community involvement through a variety of activities, communications, parenting surveys and our parent compact.

Parent/adult involvement is crucial to providing comprehensive support to our students and helping them achieve success both in and out of the classroom. We believe our staff and parents must function as a team, and as such a student's eligibility to attend our school is dependent on the following parental commitments:

- Parents/adults must attend a 4-7 week Adult Discovery class. These two--hour training sessions are held each quarter for parents on Thursday evenings from 7--9 pm.

- Parents/adults are expected to contribute 12 school service hours per year (6 per semester). The following committee work will be recognized as involvement hours:
 - Parent/Teacher Conferences: Quarters 1, 2 and 3
 - P.A.S.S. (Parents for Achievement of Student Success) Organization -- Parents are expected to attend one time each quarter
 - Before school activities
 - PAWS snacks
 - Other school-related activities

Additional avenues for communication include our school website and weekly email updates. Our website is continuously updated with upcoming events, as well as daily announcements. Our entire staff has also committed to personal communication in the form of calls home, notes and letters.

The dedication and high energy of the teaching staff is the foundation of student success at WPMS, but foundations must be built upon -in this case through strong collaboration with parents/adults.

Summary of Practices:

Another major focus at WPMS is rich, meaningful staff development. A majority of our district-wide staff development days are devoted to PLC work, including training in basic concepts and underlying research, along with extensive work time for teams to work within the four big questions of a PLC. SCSD#2 provides staff development in various areas identified as a need at our school and in our district using mostly in-house resources and some outside resources as well. Specific to our school this year, staff are engaged in training throughout the year in the implementation and use of Guided Reading Strategies--specifically Levelled Literacy Instruction (LLI). Staff are also being trained in a Peer Observation Process.

YES	Title I targeted assistance programs avoid removing children from the regular classroom during regular school hours for instruction provided under Title I. (Federal)
YES	The school meets the educational needs of historically underserved populations. (Federal)

Summary of Practices:

Data analysis is a fundamental part of improving student learning, and the staff at Wright Place Middle School has made a commitment to use data from state and district assessments to shape our instruction to meet the individual needs of students. These assessments include: PAWS, Measure of Academic Progress (MAP), and the quarterly District Reading, Writing, and Math Assessments. Data from these assessments include: percentile ranks, national norms, and district proficiency levels that help us determine if students are making the necessary progress to attain grade-level proficiency.

While we use Measures of Academic Progress (MAP) as our universal screener and conduct further assessment of at-risk learners using iReady and other tools, our teachers rely most heavily on building-level common formative assessments to monitor student learning. Our assessments have also become more formative in nature as teachers have realized the power of the approach. Teachers continue to learn each time they assess students and make ongoing adjustments to essential outcomes and their assessment instruments.

Student success on standardized assessments is also crucial to our academic growth as a school. These assessments help our teachers create a system that allows us to monitor student learning and create Essential Outcomes that drive instruction in the classroom as well as student placement in daily intervention and advisory groups. In all classrooms, teachers differentiate instruction and create leveled activities to challenge students at their level.

If a child proves to be struggling based upon classroom observation/assessments and PAWS, MAP, and district assessment analysis, the child can be placed into the school's intervention programs. Intervention systems are our biggest work-in-progress at WPMS. For student behavior and accountability, we have a number of interventions in place to assist at-risk students, re-teach expectations, and ensure that students complete assignments. These include TRIBES, intervention and advisory groups that run 25 minutes daily. Academically, teachers are responding to common assessment data at the classroom and team level by grouping and regrouping students for intervention and advisory. This can involve teachers trading students for differentiated lessons, utilizing the reading specialist to teach small groups, or establishing centers within single classrooms. At the building level, we run Title I-funded programs to help students who struggle in Reading and Math, and after school programs specifically designed to help students behind in these two areas.

For students receiving special education services, we have a special education program to meet the unique and diverse needs of students in this program. On the other hand for students who do not qualify for special education, but still need additional support, we use the READ 180 Program for students who qualify in reading.

Finally, WPMS prides itself in offering extracurricular and co-curricular activities, as well as after school programs, to enhance student learning in our school. These activities may include the program STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math). For students who have been identified as needing extra help in literacy and math there is an afterschool Bridges tutoring program taught by certified teachers that provide small group and individual tutoring.

Since we are a small school, our staff is also committed to collaborating and meeting with the high school that we share a facility with, and as a whole group throughout the week. In an effort to further develop curriculum, we have divided the week into three PLC meetings. Therefore promoting a shared sense of leadership as we work to meet the ever--increasing rigor of the new state standards as well as allows for common goals to be determined and reached through collaboration and systemic review of student data.

Teams also focus on every student as an individual, determining their needs and responding appropriately. To foster a sense of belonging, we have also initiated a Friday Afternoon Circle--Up where kids can ask question, have a voice to be heard, and be recognized for outstanding efforts and achievements.

We have worked systematically to facilitate groups as they establish norms and then work through the four big questions of a PLC. Taking the questions one at a time has been a useful approach. All of our teams have developed Power Standards and common assessments for their courses and continue to revise these on a regular basis. We also devote several staff development days each year to the PLC concept, teaching new best practices and giving teams time to work together to implement. Each year, we continue to focus more on students' academic needs, learning goals and input relevant to our school.

Summary of Practices:

Our curriculum at Wright Place Middle School is based on standards, essential understandings, core instructional materials, and supplemental instructional programs. Taken together, the curriculum of this school district is aligned with state and district standards, and the recently adopted new state standards. Our school strives toward excellence through our Professional Learning Communities (PLC) with a specific focus on student learning. Each year, teachers develop personal and professional SMART goals to help them identify areas in order to improve and meet the needs of their students. Teachers then create common formative assessments using these specific goals to progress monitor throughout the year, and guide their instruction to ensure that every learner is successful; all utilized in their PLC and common planning time.

Recognizing the importance of student outreach, an adult advocate is assigned to every single student, and they will travel with him or her throughout their entire school experience. A DFS school resource officer is utilized at our school when needed. We also utilize the resources of Center for Vital Community, whose mission is “Engaging Citizens to Strengthen Our Community” (CVC). Together the CVC and PASS helped the students participate in leadership work, and discover the power of leadership and how it can impact a culture. We have also partnered with Game and Fish to provide experiential learning opportunities for our students.

As well, WPMS is constantly looking at ways to exhaust every possible resource to support the purpose and direction of the school. When it is a significant day, as noted on the calendar to be observed, we will read blurbs about it during announcements and add it into our curriculum. We have a very involved group of parent volunteers and parent group whose mission is to promote the welfare, growth, and education of children, youth, and adults in the school and the community.
